We apply energy to federal environmental work.

At Environmental Research Group, LLC (ERG), we love the work we do. Our team of dedicated and creative problem-solvers, innovators, and environmental champions is driven by our passion for the work. We've been a trusted leader in environmental consulting services since 2000. That's because the details matter. Whether we're piloting drones, 3D scanning buildings, digging shovel tests, identifying PFAS, bats or plants, we get the job done right.
